1. On 31 October 1986, [redacted] one of my Assistant NIOs, met with Mr. David Gribbin, Executive Director of the House Republican Policy Committee. [redacted] is a friend of both Mr. Gribbin and Congressman Dick Cheney, the Chairman of the Policy Committee, through his service as a Congressional Fellow in Cheney's office during 1983-84. During the course of the discussion, [redacted] described the work of the NIO/SP's office and the many strategic issues with which we deal.

2. Mr. Gribbin expressed interest in the possibility of members of the Policy Committee being briefed on some of these issues when the 100th Congress convenes in January. In this connection, he wants to arrange a meeting between me and Congressman Cheney next month to select a couple of briefing topics. I would also like to establish similar contacts on the Democratic side of the House, as well as in the Senate.
